

THRONE YIELDS TO CHINESE ASSEMBLY; PEACE MAY FOLLOW

Hated Minister Is Disgraced and Prisoners Released---Yuan Shi Kai Treating With Insurgents?

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—Overjoyed at the results of the fighting in China, the leaders of the Chinese revolutionary movement, which has its continental headquarters in this city, have laid plans for a big demonstration next Sunday in which 10,000 revolutionary flags and pennants will be used. It is stated that virtually the whole Chinese population of the cities around San Francisco bay will participate in the parade and mass meeting. As soon as it is over, the flags and the pennants will be shipped to China.

The local revolutionists also are planning for a monster banquet on November 5th with which the rebel triumphs will be celebrated.

PEKING, Oct. 26.—The throne today surrendered to the tsu cheng tzu, China's national assembly, and in compliance with its demands, dismissed Sheng Hsuan Hui, minister of posts and communications; ordered Prince Ching, president of the cabinet, before a board of inquiry, where he doubtless will be severely dealt with; released from custody the president of the Sze Chuan provincial assembly and other leaders in the riots at Cheng Tu and, in fact, agreed to all that the assembly asked with a lack of dignity inaccessible to Western observers.

A year ago the throne treated the national assembly almost with contempt. Until even a month ago the throne, defiant of the people, issued edicts embodying drastic measures.

Now the resolution of the newly convened assembly carrying consequences of irreparable character has been granted without a day's consideration.

The order reports over the throne's seat the allegations and charges made against the minister of posts and communications, and others made by a heated, reckless and uncontrolled assembly, but Chinese affairs cannot be judged by Western standards. It will be considered here, however, that the throne acted wisely, that it recognized its defeat and submitted to force. Even the degraded ministers are not likely to bear serious ill will.

The appointment of Tang Shao Yi to succeed to Sheng Hsuan Hui is believed to forecast the appointment of Yuan Shi Kai to the second office in the cabinet, if not to the premiership.

It is reported that Yuan already is negotiating with the rebels. Members of the leadership who are old in experience in Chinese affairs would not be surprised if the revolution terminated virtually without further fighting, through the government's granting complete and immediate constitutional government.

WISCONSIN GIVES HEARTY WELCOME

Taft Applauded By Socialists and Individualists Alike.

WILWAUKEE, Oct. 26.—President Taft received an cordial welcome into Wisconsin today as he left for the state of the great orator states he has traversed in the last six weeks.

At Oshkosh he drifted into a discussion of his tariff views, but he did so with the explanation that he felt that the people at large had a right to hear from a President his views on an important executive action.

Not the least interesting event of the day was the President's visit to Fond du Lac. That city had once withdrawn its invitation to the President when it was announced that his time there would have to be somewhat curtailed. Mayor Wolf sent the telegram cancelling the invitation and suggested rather sharply that the President might as well give all his time to Appleton and Oshkosh. Then the invitation was renewed and again accepted. The entire city turned out to bid him welcome. General E. S. Bragg presided at the Fond du Lac meeting.

The first speech of the day was at Green Bay, where a great throng turned out to hear him. His subject there, as at Fond du Lac, was peace. Next came Appleton and there, in the heart of a big paper manufacturing district, the President frankly answered a series of questions put by the local commercial club, as to his course in favoring the print paper and pulp agreements in the Canadian reciprocity acts.

Mayor Soliel, the Socialist executive of Milwaukee, was on the reception committee which greeted the President on his arrival here tonight.

Milwaukee is the Socialist stronghold in the United States, and when President Taft declared that the suppression of competition surveys would lead to state socialism, there was a burst of applause.

"I am an individualist," exclaimed the President, "and I believe in individual effort as opposed to state socialism."

This called out a counter demonstration of approval far noisier than the Socialist applause.

EDUCATOR SCORES GRAMMING SYSTEMS

CHICO, Oct. 26.—Life has completely outgrown the educational system now employed in this state, according to J. H. Francis, superintendent of schools of Los Angeles, who was the principal speaker today before the Northern California Teachers' Association in annual session here. Francis urged the necessity of broadening the educational system in California to meet changed conditions and environment and declared against the method of instruction which turns out machine made pupils who have not been allowed time to think, but are crammed from one grade to the next in the shortest possible time.

Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: M. M. Chaney, Wilcox, president; W. M. Mackey, Chico, secretary; Numa Baker, Red Bluff, treasurer; J. D. Sweeney, Red Bluff; C. W. Moore, Colusa; C. H. Camper, Chico; and Lulu E. White, Shasta county, members of the educational council, which meets here Saturday.

"TERMINAL RATE" CASES ARE TAKEN UNDER ADVISEMENT

Decision Reserved By Commerce Court on Suit for Injunction.

THE SALT LAKE CASE

Lost By Railroads Which Sought to Stop Rate Order.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—At the conclusion of the arguments today in the Pacific Coast cases the Commerce Court declined to grant a temporary injunction in the Salt Lake case at the request of the transcontinental carriers.

The Interstate Commerce Commission issued an order requiring the transcontinental railroads to adjust their rates to Utah and Nevada rates so as to avoid discrimination in favor of Pacific coast terminals to become effective November 1st.

These decisions by the commission involving the construction of the bag and short haul provisions of the interstate commerce act were widely expected. The Salt Lake case in which the railroads had asked for an injunction restraining the commission from putting into effect its order, was decided by the court adversely to the railroads.

SCHOOL TEACHER WITH FLAG SAVES MAN FROM JAPS

HOOD RIVER, Ore., Oct. 26.—Hoisting an American flag in the face of a shrieking mob of Japanese section hands, Miss Edna Merchant, a plucky school teacher at Columbia, this morning saved from rough handling and possibly from death Mrs. O'Brien, a Harlequin street section boss, who had been taken into the building.

As the girl tugged at the flagpole and the mob flustered about, the Japanese faced up. The girl silently pointed to the flag. It waved the yellow flag. As they halted, O'Brien, who had been a distance of about 100 yards from the school house and the pursuit was again taken up.

O'Brien, thoroughly frightened, climbed into a rear window. He was seen after he had gone a distance of about 100 yards from the school house and the pursuit was again taken up.

GOVERNMENT SUES STEEL TRUST BIG "COMMUNITY OF INTEREST" SAYS ROOSEVELT WAS TRICKED

Federal government files suit at Trenton, N. J., to dissolve United States Steel Corporation, and thirty-six subsidiary companies.

J. P. Morgan, Andrew Carnegie, John D. Rockefeller, E. H. Gary, Charles M. Schwab and others prominent in banking and industrial circles named as defendants.

Direct connection charged by the government between steel corporation and all the large railroad and steamship lines, Standard Oil Company, the Pullman Company, International Harvester Company and the Western Union Telegraph Company.

Interlocking directorate said to have given steel corporation control over trade and commerce. Steel corporation's proposed cancellation of leases on Great Northern ore properties declared illegal and non-effective until January 1, 1915.

Steel corporation's acquisition of Tennessee Coal & Iron property declared illegal and a national menace. E. H. Gary and H. C. Frick alleged to have misled President Roosevelt when he permitted the absorption of the Tennessee Coal & Iron properties in 1908.

"Gary dinners" declared to have been all powerful in suppressing competition and the obligation laid upon participants characterized as "even dearer than life itself."

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 26.—The government's long planned suit to break up the so-called "steel trust" was begun here today in the U. S. Circuit Court. It is the most sweeping anti-trust action ever brought by the department of justice.

The government asks not only the dissolution of the U. S. Circuit Court. It asks, but for the dissolution of all constituent or subsidiary companies, which are alleged to have combined in violation of the Sherman law to "maintain or attempt to maintain a monopoly of the steel business."

Thirty-six subsidiary corporations are named as defendants. J. P. Morgan, John D. Rockefeller, Andrew Carnegie, Charles M. Schwab, George W. Perkins and E. H. Gary are among those named individually as defendants.

The petition asking for the dissolution of the steel corporation was brought from Washington to Trenton and filed by United States Attorney Colton of this city.

The steel corporation's acquisition of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company, during the year of 1907, is declared illegal and scathingly criticized. The petition declares that E. H. Gary and Henry C. Frick misled former President Roosevelt when they told him "that but little benefit will come to the steel corporation from the purchase of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company."

"There is no monopoly," the corporation says, "in the production of steel." It says the complaint, "obtained intimate knowledge of the affairs of Moore and Schley and of their holdings of Tennessee stock."

"E. H. Gary and E. H. Gary, representing the corporation, took up the negotiation with Schley for purchase of the syndicate stock of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company, offering him first the equivalent of 60 cents on the dollar and afterwards 75 cents on the dollar in cash for the stock, which Schley declined. Oshkosh, Thorne, who was president of the Trust Company of America, a New York institution, was one of the syndicate that purchased the majority of the Tennessee Coal and Iron stock."

"A New York paper of October 2nd, appeared a statement headed, 'Trust Company of America.' Among other things it said that, at a meeting, the night before, the chief bankers of the city, headed by J. Pierpont Morgan & Co., it was formally decided that the point that needed pressing was the Trust Company of America, and that the determination was announced by George W. Perkins (meaning George W. Perkins of J. P. Morgan & Co.) had been in conference subsequent to said gathering of bankers."

"A part of the article sub-headed 'The Official Statement,' said: 'The chief purpose of the Trust Company of America is to secure confidence in the condition of the company and stating that it would be added and that cash had been guaranteed therefore, it was stated that these steps were taken for the purpose of announcing that the company would be taken care of if any examination into its affairs showed conditions to be sound. This announcement helped to cause a run on the trust company and aggravated the general uneasy condition, and made the position of Moore & Schley more desperate. It was generally known that Thorne and Schley were members of the Tennessee syndicate, and that the statement contributed directly and strongly toward bringing Moore and Schley to a point of imminent failure, although they were amply solvent. It being particularly regarded by bankers and financiers that their failure might precipitate a general crisis, they, J. P. Morgan & Co. taking this lead, asserted themselves by advances of ready money to meet pressing demands and otherwise to prevent their suspension. Much of the effort, however, revolved about the proposition for the co-operation in acquiring the stock of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company. Nothing less than the control of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company was considered by the corporation."

"There was fear upon the part of the corporation that when the movement became publicly known the government might take steps to prevent its consummation. In view of this, E. H. Gary, the chairman of the executive committee of the corporation, and H. C. Frick, a director, went to Washington, reaching there Sunday morning, November 4th, to see the President, having previously made an appointment."

"Without fully disclosing all the facts in regard to the Tennessee stock, its ownership, the amount of money set aside as necessary to relieve Moore & Schley, and the arrangement that had already been made to relieve the Trust Company of America, they represented to the President that the only thing which would prevent a vicious spread of the panic was for the corporation to acquire the stock of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company. The President, however, recorded in a letter to the attorney general written in his presence, their representations. He stated that Gary and Frick told him that there was a certain business firm which would help if help should not be given and that among its assets were a large number of securities of the Tennessee Coal Company. The firm referred to was undoubtedly Moore & Schley, but it was not true that among the assets of the firm were a majority of said securities. Nor was it true that said Schley had among his assets a majority or anything approximating a majority of the securities of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company. The letter, Judge Gary and Mr. Frick informed me that but little benefit would come to the steel corporation from the purchase."

"This statement to the President was misleading. The property was very valuable. Next to the corporation, the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company had the largest endowment of properties in the United States of any steel concern. A competitor was removed. The corporation in its report to its stockholders of this purchase, said that the terms of purchase were satisfactory both as to price and manner of payment; that the purchase of the property promised stability to the corporation and that the Tennessee property was very valuable."

"The President was then made fully acquainted with the state of affairs in New York relevant to the transaction as they existed. If he had been fully advised, he would have known that a desire to stop the panic was not the sole moving cause, but that there was also the desire and purpose to acquire control of a company that had recently assumed a position of potential competition of great significance. The President, however, and the necessity of supplying for what was represented to him to be the only known remedy, stated that he did not feel it to be his duty to prevent the transaction."

"The matter then moved rapidly to consummation. The corporation and its principal banker allies did not advance the money or lend the bonds of the corporation. (Continued on Page 2)

TRAIN OF TWENTY CARS NECESSARY TO MOVE GRAFT STOCK

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 26.—November 1st is the date at which the Zellerbach Paper Company, H. S. Crocker Company and George D. Graham Company must move their stock from the warehouses of the state, according to letters addressed to those companies by the state board of control.

A train of about twenty cars will be required to move the stock which the board of control charged in a letter to Governor Johnson, the paper and ink companies, with the aid of State Printer Stephens, were trying to unload on the state.

Fourteen cars will be required to move the Zellerbach stock and between five and six cars to move the Crocker and Graham stock.

SECOND VENIRE CALLED IN AXTELL MURDER CASE

STOCKTON, Oct. 26.—Contrary to custom in San Joaquin county, a second venire of 100 men was drawn today direct from the jury box rather than being summoned by the sheriff to appear for examination as prospective jurors in the murder trial of Sam B. Axtell, the Lodi editor who killed Charles Sellers of that city. This was done that a repetition of the legal entanglements based upon the contention of the defense that the sheriff was biased when he summoned the venire in the famous Emma Leaton truck murder case here five years ago, would not occur in the Axtell case.

Of the first venire of seventy-five citizens, but three have been accepted. They are J. A. Stewart, bookkeeper and a Maclean brother of the accused; C. Foman, farmer, and H. A. D. Pelinger, farmer.

FRESNO HEALTH LEAGUE IS MADE PERMANENT ORGANIZATION

Constitution Adopted and Officers Chosen for Ensuing Year.

League Plans Public Meetings About Every Three Months for Work.

Permanent organization of the Fresno Health League was effected last night at a meeting of members in the city hall. A constitution was adopted and permanent officers were elected.

W. W. Phillips, who has been acting as temporary chairman, was chosen president and N. J. Levinson was chosen secretary. The other officers are Louis Gundelfinger, first vice president; Rev. Thomas Clayton, second vice president; and W. J. McNulty, treasurer. According to the constitution, these officers comprise the executive committee.

The president, under the constitution, is given power to appoint a publicity committee and a finance committee, while the executive committee appoints seven other committees named to carry on the work. President Phillips appointed Mrs. Truman G. Hart,

Dr. W. P. Miller and Dr. G. A. Hare, members of the finance committee, and Chester H. Rowell, N. J. Levinson, T. T. Grimes, Mrs. George H. Alken and Miss Lucy Hatch, members of the publicity committee.

The constitution, as adopted last night, provides that the objects of this league are "to develop among the people an interest in and to help them in gaining knowledge of sanitary living, and the avoidance of preventable diseases and unnecessary deaths." Any persons interested in the objects of this league may become a member.

The officers shall be elected on the second Thursday in January of each year. The monthly meetings of the league shall be held on the second Thursday of each month.

In addition to the finance and publicity committees, the constitution provides that seven other committees shall be appointed, as follows: Food, domestic sanitation, schools, tuberculosis, public sanitation and education, country sanitation and the extermination of flies.

The by-laws provide that the dues shall be a dollar a year. A life membership can be had for $10, payable in advance.

WANT PUBLIC MEETINGS.

The committee on the constitution recommended further that the holding of public meetings, about every three months, at which reports should be made of the general progress of the league's work, and whenever possible to have an address by some expert in health and sanitary matters. The recommendation was adopted by the league.

The members of the committee which drew up the constitution and by-laws were Dr. George H. Alken, Thomas Clayton, W. W. Phillips, Dr. W. P. Miller, Chester H. Rowell, Mrs. W. J. McNulty, Mrs. George H. Alken, Dr. G. A. Hare, Miss Eugenia Miller and N. J. Levinson.

A number of new members were received last night following the organization of the league.

After the regular business had been transacted, a general discussion on health topics was held. Dr. Thomas Boyd, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, gave assurance of his support and Dr. Kjaerby gave a short talk on the health of foreigners. The Russian-Germans he pointed out, were clean, both in their homes and on the persons, but they need instruction. He said the educational work which the league is to do will be one of its most important functions. Among others who took part in the general discussion were Louis Gundelfinger, Rev. Thomas Clayton, St. James Episcopal church; Dr. G. A. Hare, Rev. Thomas Clayton, Mrs. W. F. Storrie and Mr. Stone.

POLICE OFFICERS MAY BE SUED FOR FALSE IMPRISONMENT

Patrolmen Broad and Fornes Notified Claims Have Been Made.

Railroad Guards Will Likely Bring Suit Against Peace Officers.

As the result of the arrest of H. R. Pickens and H. P. Moon, Southern Pacific railroad guards on charges of battery, by Patrolmen Broad and Fornes and the failure of the officers to prosecute the case, the police officers have been notified by Attorneys Strother and Ayresworth that claims have been made against them by the guards. The police officers were notified by letter and were requested to call at the attorneys' office and settle the claim. The railroad guards will base their claim on false imprisonment.

Pickens and Moon were arrested in the railroad yards early in the morning of October 14. They were charged with having brutally beaten a Japanese who was found in the railroad yards just on the other side of the Tulare street crossing.

The Japanese, covered with blood, reported the affair to Patrolmen Broad and Fornes. The police officers went to the railroad yards and placed Pickens and Moon under arrest. They were taken first to police headquarters and later lodged in jail. The Japanese was on his way to San Francisco and had stopped in Fresno between trains. He told the officers that he would stay in Fresno and swear to a complaint against the railroad men. On this information Pickens and Moon were lodged in jail.

The railroad guards were only forced to say in jail for two hours as Assistant Superintendent Dodge made a trip in an automobile to Clark where they were secured for them. In the meantime the Japanese left Fresno and has not been seen since so the officers dropped the case as far as they were concerned.

Attorney Strother when seen last night refused to make any statement for publication except what appeared in the paper when the police officers failed to put in their appearance in his office and make an attempt to settle the claim.

Patrolman Broad said last night that he and his brother officer were not within their rights where they arrested the railroad men after complaint had been made by the Japanese. Broad also said that he would not call upon the law firm and make any attempt to settle the claim.

It is presumed that upon the refusal of the officers to visit Attorneys Strother and Ayresworth a civil action will be started in the courts. Just what amount Broad and Fornes will be sued for is not known. Some estimate the amount at $20,000 while others are more conservative.

HIGH SCHOOL SOLONS DEFEAT "SOCIALISTS"

Expecting Clean Sweep, They Secure Only Two Minor Offices.

At the election of senate officers, held at the high school last night, the supremely confident "Socialist" party met with overwhelming disaster. For though the Socialists expected a clean sweep of the officers, they succeeded in placing men in the positions of treasurer and sergeant at arms only.

The successful nominees were: President, Prescott of Kansas; vice president, Clark of Idaho; secretary, Hopkins of Iowa; treasurer, McDowell of Nebraska; sergeant at arms, Wakefield of Michigan. The senators feel confident that they have made the best possible choice of officers, and the coming administration can not well be other than effective.

Many of the senators, when endorsing their favored candidates for office, clothed their addresses in an eloquence that proved both a surprise and a delight to the listeners. To establish the record in the Senate, the speaker of the youthful solons, it may be said that with affiliation with the different "parties" which have had a mushroom growth in the body, were disregarded.

GO RIGHT AT IT.

Friends and Neighbors in Fresno Will Show You How.

Get at the root of the trouble. Rubbing an aching back may relieve it. But it won't cure it. You must reach the root of it—the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills go right at it. Reach the cause; relieve the pain. They cure, too, so Fresno people say. Frank Coleman, 2026 Ventura street, Fresno, Cal., says: "My own experience with Doan's Kidney Pills leads me to speak highly of them. They cured me of a severe attack of kidney complaint after other preparations had failed to help me in the least. My back ached so much that I could not sleep and I had to stop my work. I had dull pains in the small of my back and my head ached a great deal. I had almost despaired of ever being cured, when I fortunately learned of Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured a supply at the Baker & Colton Drug Co. and before long their use had entirely rid my system of kidney complaint. Everyone suffering from kidney trouble should give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

LASH'S BITTERS

It was pretty well understood by the boys that the political units of the assembly were organized only in a spirit of fun, with no purpose other than to give a suitable outlet for the epidemic of "adjectivitis" which periodically runs rampant in such a society.

The meeting was held Thursday night instead of tonight, in order to avoid conflict with the last big gala night of membership campaign week which will be celebrated at the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday evening.

Because of the great length of time taken up by the election, the orders of the day were not debated. The program for Friday evening, November 3rd, will be: "Resolved, that shipping of the United States who will use the Panama Canal should be charged a lower rate of toll than foreign shippers." Affirmative, Peckham of Connecticut, East of North Dakota; negative, Owen of Louisiana, Crawford of Pennsylvania.

MORE BOX CARS COMING TO VALLEY POINTS SOON

Strikers Say Old Cars Are Disabled; Espoo Men Say "Too Much Freight."

According to a statement made by Southern Pacific officials yesterday the company is bringing about 500 empty box cars to California points from the Rock Island, Illinois Central and Milwaukee roads. The importations have been made necessary by the large amount of freight on hand, assert the Espoo men.

W. Emmons, local freight agent, is authority for the statement that San Joaquin valley points have always experienced a shortage of cars at this time of the year and the present consignment of cars is no exception to the rule. Most of the cars will be used by the packing houses to ship raisins and other dried fruit to the Eastern market in time for the holiday trade. According to Emmons the "empties," as they are known in railroad circles, will be distributed to valley points where they are most needed.

Leaders of the local strikers still maintain the cars are being brought here to replace cars which have become disabled since the strike began. Assistant Superintendent Dodge of the Southern Pacific denies this and says his road has suffered none in its rolling stock and as the strike is in the strike in Eastern lines the cars could not be sent here if the walkout of September 25th had made any difference in the condition of the cars.

Local strikers are jubilant because fifteen Mexican car cleaners have left the employ of the company during the past week. Railroad officials say the vacancies have been filled within a few hours after the Mexicans left.

GOVERNMENT SUES STEEL CORPORATION

the corporation upon the Tennessee Company which would have relieved Moore & Schley.

"By taking this position that nothing would relieve the situation but the corporation's taking over absolutely the majority of the Tennessee stock. This was done and it acquired also under the same management, additional stock. The corporation exchanged for the stock its own bonds on a basis which paid par in cash, for stock which had a few days before sold for not worth more than 60 cents on the dollar."

"It is certain that the corporation availed itself of the embarrassment of Moore & Schley, at a most critical period and the hammering of the Tennessee stock and the threatening of a general financial calamity to acquire the control of a competitor, taking on a formidable aspect."

"The steel corporation thus greatly strengthened its control of the iron ore supply of the country, its predominant position in the iron and steel trade of the South, eliminated a competitor, and unlawfully acquired a power which is a menace to the welfare of the country and should be destroyed."

Then the bill goes on to allege the formation of illegal pools, known as the Steel Plate Association, the Structural Steel Association, the Steel Rail Association, the Wire Rope Combination, the Rubber, Cord and Combination, the Horse Shoe Manufacturers' Association, the Underground Power Cable Combination, the Weather Proof and Magnet Wire Combination, the Land Increased Rubber Cable Combination, the Rubber, Cord and Wire Combination. These are alleged to have been illegal agreements to suppress competition and fix prices in the commodities indicated by their names.

Combinations, other than wireless and arguments, the government charges, were entered into at various meetings. One in New York City on January 11, 1911, is specified. The government's petition says:

"Under the auspices of the corporation the interests come together from time to time, find out the views of the corporation in respect to prices and output and all that hitherto was affected by pools and from the agreements reached a common understanding and purpose and proceeds to carry out the same."

"What these meetings actually accomplished shows the great and dangerous power achieved by the corporation through unlawful combination, exercised over the trade and commerce of the country. The concerted action taken has prevented fluctuations in prices and competition."

The petition charges that 90 per cent of the steel and iron trade has been represented at these meetings and combinations.

"At the time of one of these meetings, held in New York, January 11, 1911, there was not in this country a demand for more than 50 per cent of the total producing capacity in the line of the products mentioned, and no possible way of protecting themselves from competition except by coming to an understanding that each would be satisfied with a proportion of the business, which was understood by all, and this understanding was carried out and no one of them competed for the recognized business of the others."

"By these meetings and interchange of information and understanding each became in honor bound not to get the trade of the other and each by the concerted action acquired participation in the direction of the affairs of the other."

"At these meetings they not only exchanged information but also exchanged prices and how business brought about the maintenance of prices."

Attached to the bill, among other exhibits of alleged agreements, is a statement showing the extent to which the steel corporation is represented in the directorates of other concerns. It shows George F. Baker as a director

TEAL'S CLUB, CHEERED BY CHORUS GIRLS, BEAT EMPIRES

Members of the Raymond Teal Musical Comedy Company yesterday scored first blood in their baseball controversy with the Frank Thorne Stock company from the Empire. In a burlesque game at Recreation Park, Teal's club finished on the long end of a 21 to 4 score.

The features were the pitching of Avery of the winners and the base running of J. Wesley Tilton, who fell down and sprained his knee. Immediately after the blood had been wiped from the diamond, the Empire challenged the Teals to a second game.

The deft was accepted and the game will be staged at Recreation Park at 7:30 Tuesday afternoon. One of yesterday's features was the victorious cheering of the chorus girls from Teal's theater. Here is the lineup: Avery, p.; Cash Knight, c.; Cleve Beck, 1b.; Chesbro, 2b.; Bill Beck, 3b.; Penny, ss.; Knoblock, lf.; Teal, cf.; Crooks, rf.

Max Hoer pitched for the Empire and was batted hard and often.

In fifty-six others; Edmund C. Converse in twenty-eight; William E. Corey in thirty-two; J. Pierpont Morgan in fifty-one.

Of this the government petition says:

"Under the policy of the corporation there grew up a community of interest and a power to influence action to a common purpose never exceeded in the commercial history of the world. There came into existence a system of interlocking directorates which embraced almost the entire commercial and financial powers of the country."

"Since its organization the corporation by means of its great earnings made possible largely through the power and control over the trade in iron and steel has further increased its power, influence and dominance by enlarging its old plants and constructing new ones, paid for by its earnings. The investment of its earnings, has been from $400,000,000 to $450,000,000.

"Its net earnings, shown by its annual reports for nine months of the year 1901 and for the years 1902 to 1910 inclusive aggregate $80,045,833.30. This was an average of about 7 per cent per annum upon the total capitalization of the company. The real earnings amounted to an average approximately twelve per cent per annum upon the actual average investment."

Within 15 minutes after the filing of the suit, a United States marshal went to New York to serve papers upon fifteen defendants residing therein among them being J. P. Morgan, Charles M. Schwab, Gilbert M. Gary and John D. Rockefeller.

Service will be made within forty-eight hours. Subpoenas will also be served requiring them to answer the petition the first Monday in December.

INDEPENDIBLE

Both the Fresno Tribune and the Painters' Union have put themselves in an untenable position by trying to the Fresno Labor News in its attempt to attack on the character of the girls employed in the Fresno telephone office. Unless that attack is retracted absolutely, with an unconditional apology, to think that in connection with it is discussable. To attempt to shift the issue is only to repeat the insult. The main thing was done by the Carpenters' union, when it repudiated the slander and ejected the slanderer.

The Tribune says that "it may be that some such a method was absolutely necessary to stir up the people," and the Painters' Union charges the Tribune and the Carpenters with "misrepresenting the language and object" of the Labor News article. So far as the language is concerned, the Tribune quoted it verbatim, punctuation, black letters and all. As to the "object," no possible purpose can justify a false and wanton attack on the character of decent women. No "such a method" is either "absolutely necessary," nor even decently permissible, in any sort of discussion. Men do not argue nor quibble about such matters. They fight.

This is no abstract sociological discussion of the general relation of wages and morals. It was a definite, concrete charge against the character of a particular group of Fresno girls, who notoriously do not deserve it. They are girls selected in the first place with special reference to their character, and then protected, most of them by good homes and all of them by the most careful and circumspect conditions of employment. Many of them choose this employment just because of its social dignity, when they could make more money in other and less protected occupations. Whatever may be the case in some congested communities elsewhere, certainly in Fresno, with all its varied opportunities, virtue is a matter of character, and not of wages. No Fresno girl needs to be driven by poverty to the shameful course suggested by the Labor News. And no girl inclined to it by preference would be likely to choose an occupation in which she is so carefully guarded, both by discipline and by social atmosphere, as are the girls in the local telephone exchange.

The Tribune ought to be ashamed of itself. The Labor News should retract and apologize. And the painters would do well to follow the example of the carpenters.

NOBODY KICKING

Really, the most interesting news is the thing that does not happen: the most significant editorials are those that are not written.

This rather paradoxical reflection is suggested by the conspicuous lack of any public protest against the coming extra session of the legislature. Here is a meeting of the people's representatives, to make laws for the people, and the people are not complaining. Not even the hack writers, hard up for a subject, are turning out the sick platitudes on the subject.

The same curious omission was noticed during the regular session. Forty years every session of a California legislature had been the occasion for torrents of indiscriminate newspaper abuse, poured alike on the just and the unjust, until politicians had pretended to grow cynical, and to be convinced that the newspapers would "roast" everybody, anyway. But when this legislature met, and took positive action on more controverted questions than any ten of its predecessors, there was discussion enough, and even dissent and opposition enough, on the part of those who disagreed, but there was a marked dearth of personal and general abuse. The newspapers had not reformed. The same men edited them, and the same reporters wrote for them. Few if any of these had experienced any personal regeneration. Yet they treated the legislature generally with respect, or, at worst, with decent dissent.

The explanation is of course simple. This legislature really did represent the people; it was intelligent, honest and faithful, and was treated accordingly even by those divergent opinions. The representative system vindicated itself, whenever it became really representative.

THE REAL THING

After all, the things that last are the real things—real work, real knowledge, real merit, real purpose, real goals. The things that vanish are the false things—bluff, pretense, insincerity, flash and show. Try it in business. You can buy a crowd of yokels into any sort of a show—once. You can sell any sort of goods by any sort of advertising—once. You can get credit for success by putting up "front" until settlement day. You may fake living wages for real service into fancy prices for bluff—until it blows up. Try it personally and socially. You can "butt in" to almost any sort of company—until you are frozen out. You can get credit, by silence or boasting, for almost any sort of knowledge—until you are found out. You can marry almost any sort of a girl (girls are bluffed)—until the divorce. You can even scare almost any sort of a man—until the first blow. But you can't make anything last but the real thing. It is only a bluff to try.

HERMIT IS FOUND ON WEST SIDE FARM

Hair Reaches to Shoulders; Wraps Feet in Sacks; Believed Insane.

With his hair reaching to his shoulders and his feet wrapped in gunnysacks, a man who refused to give his name was located in the county jail last night by Deputy Sheriff Smith of Mendota. The man will probably be given a hearing today or tomorrow on an insanity charge. When asked his name he refused to talk, but finally said that he wouldn't tell, and the officers to that end the best way they could.

He was found near Mendota yesterday morning. He stepped into a farm house, and his appearance frightened several women. He was offered food, but after taking a loaf of bread he threw it at a woman. The man appears to be an American by birth and his features resembling an Indian. He spoke good English once or twice, but refused to answer any questions.

POULTRY SHOW DATES ADVANCED ONE WEEK

Circuit of Six Shows to Be Given in State; This City Is Third.

Owing to the fact that the original date set for the holding of a poultry show in Fresno, conflicts with the date set for the Penultima show, it was decided yesterday at a meeting of the Fresno Poultry Fanciers' Association to advance the dates one week. The new time set is from December 11th to December 16th.

By holding the show at this time, a complete circuit of six shows throughout the state will be possible. The other towns will follow in order as follows: Penultima, Fresno, Los Angeles, San Diego and Santa Barbara.

The committee on premiums consisting of H. H. Holland, Robert Venn and Russell Chier, reported that cup, cash and ribbon premiums will be awarded.

The committee is now working on a premium list and announced that the list would be published within a very short time. Efforts are to be made to make this show one of the most successful ever held in Fresno and a great deal of interest is being shown.

Another meeting of the association will be held in Judge Smith's court room tonight at 7:30 o'clock to receive reports from other committees and make further arrangements for the show.

The Fresno County Sunday School Union has just selected dates for its annual district convention which is held in various parts of the county. In the selection of dates, a suggestion has been made to hold the convention and evening meetings be held at each place.

The main program for each of these meetings will be arranged by the county association but a request has been made that local and in the way of music and devotional exercises be furnished. An effort is to be made to get some one in each place to read a paper or give a talk.

The dates and places selected for the various conventions are as follows: Reedley, Tuesday, November 7; Kingsburg, Wednesday, November 8; Selma, Thursday, November 9; Hanford, Friday, November 10; Clovis, Saturday, November 11; Sanger, Sunday, November 12; Fresno, Monday, November 13; Fowler, Tuesday, November 14.

RAZOR USED IN CHINATOWN ROW

Patrimonia Ponce and Brand this morning lodged Alexander Ortega in the county jail on a charge of disturbing the peace. Another Mexican was arrested and charged with assault with a deadly weapon. The men engaged in a fight in Chinatown and it is alleged that the John Doe Mexican attacked Ortega with a razor.

LATEST RETURNS ARIZONA PRIMARY

Marcus Smith Defeats Eugene Ives for Senatorial Nomination.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 26.—Returns from Tuesday's primary election in Arizona are as yet very incomplete for the candidates on the state ticket. It is known, however, that Marcus Smith of Tucson has defeated Eugene Ives of Tucson for the senatorial nomination for the United States Senate and will run with Henry P. Ashurst of Prescott against Ralph A. Cameron of Phoenix and Edward A. Smith of Bisbee, the Republican candidates.

Carl Hayden, Democrat, of Phoenix, and John S. Williams of Tombstone, Republican, are the nominees for Congress.

Poll Tax

An impression prevails in some quarters that women will be required to pay poll tax as a condition for voting. The poll tax is not the case. The poll tax laws only apply to males. Of course the Legislature may hereafter require women to pay it, but at present the fair sex are exempt from paying poll tax. The poll tax should be strictly repealed so made to apply to the right to vote. In a number of States every voter who registers is required to produce a receipt showing he has paid poll tax for the current year. This provision of the law eliminates the floating vote—Oakland Tribune.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY TO PROBE DYNAMITING

Action in Indianapolis May Affect Los Angeles Trial.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 26.—Reports from Indianapolis that a federal grand jury will investigate the so-called McNamara dynamiting cases, made a focus here today for consideration by counsel for the defense of John J. and James B. McNamara and attracted attention in the office of District Attorney John D. Fredericks as well. Clarence S. Darrow, chief of counsel for the defense, telegraphed to Indianapolis for more information.

A full in court procedure today while a new case being heard in the court, gave opportunity for consideration of the situation. It was conceded that the whole general aspect of the case may be altered by prospective action of the federal authorities. Although it may not make any immediate difference in the trial of James B. McNamara, now in progress, this is not certain, and John J., who with his brother is under indictment for murder in connection with the destruction of the Los Angeles Times, may enter upon an entirely altered status.

Two main situations were regarded here tonight as possible to ensue from the Indianapolis investigation. It was admitted in the first place that the investigation, regardless of its outcome, may make it easier for the prosecution to institute proceedings by which to obtain certain books and records which the Indianapolis authorities have refused to give up. This evidence is much desired by District Attorney Fredericks, and last of it was said to be one of the reasons why James B. McNamara's case was tried first.

The second possibility also has to do with the fact that the state elected to try James first instead of John J. The trial now in session may last well into next summer, during which time John J. ordinarily would be kept in jail here, except for such intervals as he might be called as a witness in his brother's case—a possibility which has been considered without eliciting any statements for the defense.

Should an indictment result from the Indianapolis investigation, there is legal possibility that he might be taken back there. This could be done under order from a United States commissioner after a hearing instituted upon receipt of a certified copy of the indictment. Such action would raise again the question of McNamara's extradition to Indiana from California.

NO PRIOR RIGHTS. In case the commissioner should decide that the evidence warranted the removal of the prisoner, whether he would stay here until after trial or go to Indianapolis first would be a matter of courtesy between the county and federal authorities, said United States District Attorney Augustus I. McCormick, discussing this aspect of the case. "Neither side necessarily would have a prior right," McCormick said he had received no information concerning the case from the Eastern federal authorities, nor had he sent any.

District Attorney John D. Fredericks admitted that the Indianapolis investigation had been known to him for some time.

There are some features of the case in which the federal government no doubt would be interested," was his comment. John J. McNamara, the man immediately interested, would not talk about the new phase of the situation.

FIGHT IS MADE ON OKLAHOMA PROHIBITION

Opponents Hope to Substitute County Local Option.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 26.—An amendment to the new constitution repealing state wide prohibition and substituting local option in its place, will be voted on in Oklahoma soon if petitions placed in circulation today receive the necessary 75,000 signatures. The proposed amendment makes the county the unit of prohibition, and under the plan a dry state and under the enabling act the eastern half of the state, formerly the Indian Territory, must remain dry for twenty years.

PRICE OF STEAKS RISES IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—The "Small Steak" has disappeared from the menu of nearly all Chicago restaurants.

It has been replaced by the "single sirloin" and several other steaks with high prices. The present day counter-part costs a quarter.

S. B. Tule takes up the entire system, only at Smith Bros.

INTEREST IN LIVING RATHER THAN DEAD ANIMALS SHOULD BE TAUGHT

The custom of allowing every child who has a taste for nature and animal life to possess an aquarium or to become a collector of butterflies, insects, or eggs, is one much to be deplored.

It is a serious matter that herds of schoolboys should be let loose over the country to destroy every moth, butterfly or dragonfly they happen to find, many rare species which are of course the most sought for, run a chance of becoming extinct.

The most serious evil of the practice is that it entirely does away with the idea of sacredness of life. This is a lesson for a child to learn, and one which plants his finer sensibilities. It is true that there are insects and other animals harmful to vegetation, that must be destroyed, but it is not well to encourage children to kill them.

There is a path of true and reverent observation and research into the wonders of plant and animal life; a path of endless interest and delight. The child collector in his eagerness to add another dead specimen to his collection is oblivious of the marvels connected with the life of the bright creature he covets.

A child responds readily to suggestion. Let us speak of the wonderful instincts many insects possess; how bees and ants, for example, combine to labor for the public benefit; the important part butterflies and bees play in the fertilization of flowers; the myriad beneficent earthworms confer on the soil—this last required the patient observation of a Darwin to discover. All this will call out high faculties in a child. He will reverence living creatures. He will cultivate a high and lasting satisfaction in the study of chance observation of animals.

Consideration of the rights of animals is a good trait for a child. Consideration of the rights of other people is a good trait for a grown man or woman.

It is reasonable to expect that a child may be allowed or encouraged to be cruel and yet grow up to be kind. It is reasonable to expect that teaching children to be kind is of lasting benefit to them and to society.—Press Bureau of Humane Society.

COMMITTEE NAMED TO SEEK HOME RULE

Municipalities League to Elect Officers Today.

SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 26.—The League of California Municipalities did not elect officers today, as expected, but deferred this matter until the morning session of tomorrow. It is expected that Mayor Frank K. Mott of Oakland will be unanimously re-elected president, as will Secretary Thomas of San Francisco.

Road making, local option, disposal of sewage, and various other subjects pertaining to city government were discussed at today's session.

The league this afternoon went on record as emphatically endorsing home rule for all California cities at the coming session of the legislature. For this purpose a committee was named which will draft the proposed constitutional amendment. This committee is composed of H. A. Mason, San Francisco, chairman; John J. Nolan of San Francisco and Assemblyman Unqualified endorsement for participation by all cities of the state in the Panama Pacific Exposition to be held in San Francisco was given by the league today. A committee was named to secure the participation of all cities and on motion of Mayor Hugh Craig of Piedmont a resolution was adopted recommending that the Panama Pacific International Exposition make provision for a world's municipal exhibit.

Another resolution praising San Diego for yielding to San Francisco the honors of the greater exposition was adopted. The resolution concluded: "We hereby express our appreciation of the heroic undertaking of the citizens of San Diego, which they are carrying forward with signal promise, and extend to them our heartfelt endorsement, and we hope their efforts may meet their fullest expectations and enhance the fame and honor of our beloved state."

The league will wind up its sessions tomorrow.

GASCARETS FOR A SICK, SOUR STOMACH

Gently but Thoroughly Cleanses and Regulate Your Stomach, Liver and Bowels While You Sleep. That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases, that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, head-aching, after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick-headache, means indigestion; a disordered stomach which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Gascarets. They cure indigestion, because they immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended forever. A Gascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a ten-cent box from family feeling good for months. ## THE LOCKWOOD System of DENTISTRY WITHOUT PAIN

LECTURE No. 7.

To some people the positive statements I have been making regarding MY SYSTEM of dentistry WITHOUT PAIN may appear extravagant, but that is because they have not become familiar with dentistry as practiced in my office. MY SYSTEM is such a complete departure from those of dentists generally that forcible language is necessary. People usually place little faith in the negative individual anyway. Quite recently I had a patient that told of going first to another dentist and after an examination and estimate on the work, asked if it would hurt. The dentist replied "Oh, I don't think much." The patient's mental processes were not equal to figuring out just what degree of pain and discomfort he would be compelled to submit to. He came to me, and I did his necessary dental work. He afterwards informed me that he was very glad he had engaged me as his dentist. I have worked for a large number of people here in Fresno and in different parts of this and adjacent counties. To those I can refer to substantiate my claims. From several I have received letters in which they voluntarily expressed the satisfaction and comfort they derived from engaging me as their dentist. These proofs of my ability and claims are available to any one who cares to investigate at my office.

Remember, with MY SYSTEM of dentistry WITHOUT PAIN, I FILL, CROWN, REMOVE A NERVE, DO ALL the various kinds of bridgework, EXTRACT, in fact, perform ALL operations in modern dentistry ABSOLUTELY WITHOUT PAIN. Also bear in mind that the medicinal agents that I employ to subdue ALL sensation (in the tooth) contain NO COCAINE, MORPHINE or any drug that is in the slightest degree injurious to the weakest constitution, besides being applied locally to the tooth it cannot enter the general system. I make no charge for an examination and estimate. My prices are reasonable, no more than any capable dentist would charge.

Clouds are reported from all Nevada and California points and the weather conditions are generally unsettled but no rain has fallen except in the northern part of the Sacramento valley. High barometric pressure covers the Pacific states and all sections from the Rocky mountains eastward causing much fair and cool weather except some light snowfalls in Wyoming, Nebraska and South Dakota.

Weather conditions in Fresno and vicinity will continue unsettled during the night and Friday, probably with showers this afternoon and tonight or on Saturday.

SOCIETY

Yesterday afternoon at the Parlor Lecture Club, there was a general "rejuvenation of Aunt Mary's" and every one who belongs to the Home Department, and who availed herself of the opportunity to come and revel in the frolics of a kindergarten party. It was as good as a masquerade. After standing by some one for some little time, without recognizing her, you suddenly discovered that a blond wig made a most bewitching disguise, although it was known to be of the same color as the one under the blue ribboned head gear. Quaint little Normanly caps with touching aprons adorned some, while a bevy of Buster Browns and Mary Janes were very vivacious. Middy bougies and tilted skirts were a popular costume. Mrs. J. H. Alexander, president of the department (and also as Buster Brown) welcomed her guests, with Mrs. W. T. Knowles her assistant, and companion. Mrs. George L. Warlow, the president of the club, happily portrayed Mary Jane, while Miss Maude Holman as Little Bo Peep, had the typical sheep-dog costume, and carried a long crook. Mrs. Frank Minard looked as trimly girlish in a sailor suit, as did Mrs. W. H. Howe. Miss Marie Houston was the only little Chinese girl present, and Miss Geneva Ellis of Alameda, and Miss Pearl Swanson wore dainty little French frocks and flat heels. Miss Ada Pottle, a track of white with red sash. She wore her hair in long curls with saucy red hair ribbons. Mrs. M. E. Newlin was a gay sailor lass as was also Mrs. S. H. Redden.

A Trial Will Convince Anyone—The Great Kidney Remedy Never Disappoints

A few years ago I was troubled with a complication of kidney and stomach ailments, and almost tried two or three different doctors I was unable to obtain a cure. Having heard a great deal about Swamp-Root, I decided to give it a trial and purchased a one-dollar bottle of Mr. Alexander's Swamp-Root. From the beginning I could notice a change for the better, and after taking eight bottles of your medicine I feel entirely cured and have not had any trouble since.

Had I begun using Swamp-Root sooner, I would have been a hundred dollars to the good and saved myself a lot of suffering.

You may use my testimonial any time you wish.

Yours very truly,
CHARLES E. HARRIS,
160 Sixth St., Marion, Iowa.

I certify that Charles E. Harris signed the above testimonial in my presence, being first duly sworn to the truth thereof, this 12th day of July, 1930.

matte dialogue. "Who Killed Cock Robin" was thrillingly given by Mrs. G. L. Warlow, assisted by Mrs. J. Knowles, Mrs. Thomas Anton, Mrs. W. T. Knowles, Mrs. J. A. Stephens, Mrs. W. T. Thomas, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Alexander.

Miss Lola Stephens contributed an appropriate vocal number, and Miss Pearl Swanson presided at the piano with youthful grace. Miss Marie Houston did some clever "story-telling," the principal of her narrative being two pigeons. Miss Geneva Ellis gave a "kiddie" rendition of The Jingle Man, even to the forgotten lines. Mrs. G. L. Warlow and Miss Jenny Dore gave a duet, interpreted as by two very nervous youngsters, before invited guests.

The finale was given by a real little tyke, being the well known "Orphan Annie" tale, with tiny Miss Rowa giving a realistic account of how the "babbling" got you.

Refreshments were perfectly in keeping with the entertainment. Stick candy, animal crackers, and corn-cakes were consumed in quantities. Refreshments by healthy young appetites, and punch was also served.

The afternoon, which was the first of a series of "Health Afternoons," was pronounced a great success.

ARE MICROBES IN YOUR SCALP?

Prof. Lina, of Hamburg, Germany, and Dr. Schabert, the leading French dermatologist, discovered that a microbe causes baldness. Their theory has time and again been amply verified through research experiments carried on under the observation of eminent scientists. This microbe lodges in the scalp, which is the hair follicle, and when permitted to fester it destroys the hair follicles, and in time the pores entirely close, and the scalp gradually takes on a shiny appearance. When this happens there is no hope of the growth of hair being revived.

We have a remedy which will, we honestly believe, remove dandruff, exterminate the microbe, promote good circulation in the scalp and around the hair roots, fatten and revitalize the hair, and overcome baldness, so long as there is any life left in the hair roots.

We back up this statement with our own personal guarantee that this remedy, called Rexall "23" Hair Tonic, will supply relief of all cost to the user if it fails to state.

It will frequently help restore gray and faded hair to its original color, providing loss of color has been caused by disease, yet it is in no sense a dye. Rexall Hair Tonic accomplishes these results by acting on the very hair root follicle, and stimulating a natural flow of coloring pigment throughout the hair cells.

We exact no obligations or promises—we simply ask you to give Rexall "23" Hair Tonic a thorough trial and if not satisfied tell us, and we will refund the money you paid us for it. Two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain it in Fresno only at the Rexall Store, The Monroe Drug Co., Mariposa and J streets, Fresno, Calif.

Consumptives Helped by Tuberculosis Medicine

It is fully to be believed that Consumption differs from every other disease in not requiring the use of any specific medicine for its cure. The trouble has been that some have known that the remedy effected by Eckman's Alterative is to be realized. Now, for ten years, an enormous mass of voluntary and thankful testimonials from persons who credit that they owe their lives to this remedy have been accumulating. Surely plenty of time to demonstrate its lasting effect can be written to any of them. Here is one:

5323 Third Ave., Philadelphia, Pa.

Gentlemen: In the winter of 1923 I had an attack of Grippe, followed by pneumonia, and later by Consumption. I grew steadily worse. In the winter of 1924 I had cough, night sweats, fever and great quantities of sputum. I was very thin and had many hemorrhages. One day, three or four successive days, one day and one became so debilitated I could keep nothing down. My physician called me, I was ordered to rest, but did not do so. Eckman's Alterative was recommended by a friend. After taking a small quantity I had the first quiet night's sleep for weeks. My improvement was marked from the first. I gained strength and weight and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage and my cough gradually lessened until entirely gone. I am perfectly well. Every family and friend who has seen me, and cured cases and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. It is a potent poison, and is a leading drug. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.

DRY HACKING COUGH

Any physician will tell you that while an ordinary cough which becomes loose in a few days does not amount to much, you ought to guard very carefully against the dry, hacking cough that hangs on for weeks or longer. Cough syrups do no good in such cases. It takes a remedy that goes deeper.

The bronchial irritation that causes dry coughs is due to lowered vitality. Build up your strength just as quick as you can by taking Vinal's cough and throat lozenges. They are equal for healing all coughs and bronchial troubles. Try Vinal—we give back your money back if it does not do all that we say. We know, for we have seen it do so much good. ## FEW ARRESTS LIKELY IN RODENT WARFARE

Notices of District Attorney Bring Delinquents to Comply With Law.

Dr. Simpson, the Federal medical officer in charge of the squirrel eradication work in the San Joaquin valley belt, is taking comfort in the thought that criminal prosecutions for non-compliance with the law will be few, in the counties. This is the experience after the final notices sent by the district attorney to the owners of the land.

In this county about 200 delinquents were reported to the district attorney after the re-inspection of the infected fields, but the final notices went out long ago, and the district attorney's prosecution have brought the greater number of delinquents to the fore to arrange for the commencement of the long neglected work in Tulare county, six reported delinquents commenced work and so there will be no prosecution there.

"I am glad that these notices to delinquents are having this result. In all this work I have never met a property owner in any of the counties who has objected to the squirrel eradication campaign as an onerous measure. The delinquents are not because of any opposition to the law, but result simply from carelessness, delay and neglect. If the work of eradication is brought about by the threat instead of actual arrest and prosecution, I am all the more satisfied because the desired end is after all attained and that is the principal object," said Dr. Simpson.

Not a little difficulty has been experienced in the work of killing squirrels by poisoning on the county roads. In the unpopulated portions of the roads the squirrels make their homes to prey upon the neighboring fields. In this county this work of eradication has been in part done by the road overseers, and in Alameda county over 1500 miles of public roads have been run over. In Kings county Dr. Simpson received a plan which has proven a success. It is to arrange with the land owners to furnish the labor to put out on the road the poison secured from the government through the field inspectors as compensation for the poisoning work.

CASE COMPROMISED AFTER LONG FIGHT

Payment to Be Made at Last for Grading on Fresno Copper Mine Road.

Anticipating trial of the case set before Judge Church for the 2nd of next month, dismissal on compromise was filed yesterday of the long and stubbornly fought case of J. W. Simpson against Southern California Company of Los Angeles. Simpson as assignee of John Zapp as sub-contractor of the defendant company sued for $500 for work under a special agreement in the grading of the railroad for the Little Railroad from Gordon's station to the Fresno Copper mine. The general charge for grading under the contract was 16-1/2 cents per cubic yard, but on the surveyed route the grade was found under the surface, and for this work difficult work it was claimed that a special charge of a dollar a yard was agreed to. The Los Angeles company set up a counter claim for several thousands of dollars. The case was fought hard with the result of various delays to amend the complaints to plead the special contract. Thereafter a motion for change of place of trial to the southern county was successfully countered. Attorney Joseph B. Harland, Attorney F. E. Cook represented the company locally.

VERDICT OF GUILTY AGAINST PIERINI

A verdict of guilty as charged was returned by the jury which tried Adolph Pierini before Judge Austin on the charge of assaulting Arthur E. Crabbe with a bludgeon last at Fresno on the 27th of last July. The assault followed an altercation on the main street of Fresno over a horse which Crabbe was riding. A passing train and taking the bit between its teeth ran away, dumped Crabbe on the Pierini saloon porch and itself took a short cut across a corner of the wooden porch. Pierini, who was standing on the porch, was hit after he had returned from catching the runaway horse, and was explaining to a brother of Pierini how it came about. Pierini claimed in extenuation of his act that the carrying of the horse impeded the life of his little daughter playing at the time on the porch.

MUSIC IN AIR OVER PURCHASE OF PIANOS

C. E. Whitney Co. Publishes Sensational Open Letter to Board.

COALINGA, Oct. 26.—Quite a stir was caused in Coalinga this evening when an open letter written by the C. E. Whitney Company and addressed to Trustees Porter, Walsh and Robertson of the Coalinga school district, appeared in the local papers in reference to awarding a contract for two pianos. On the 21st of this month an advertisement asking for bids for two pianos of standard make appeared in the Weekly Oil Record and the Whitney Company bid was $250 each for the two instruments and the bid accepted by the board was for two pianos from Wiley B. Allen Company for $427.50 each.

The letter states that the writers have absolute proof that one of the board members is an acting agent for the Wiley B. Allen Company and that as late as today was exhibiting the company's pamphlets at his place of business. The letter asks, "Is this graft or is it not?" and further states, "As you gentlemen are so keen on going out of the city for your supplies, we publish this letter that we, and the tax-paying public generally, may know the real reason."

The trustee who is said to be the agent for the piano house by the Whitney Company, is D. P. Walsh, who is in the teaming and drayage business here.

FORMER FRESNAN IN TROUBLE FOR NEGLECT

I. S. Knight Secures Release; Will Be Given Chance to Provide.

On a charge of failing to provide necessary food, clothing and shelter for his wife and daughter, I. S. Knight, a former well-known real estate dealer of this city, appeared before City Judge Graham yesterday and was released on his own recognizance. No plea was entered in the case as Knight will be given an opportunity to provide for his family.

Knight gave up his real estate business in this city about six months ago and moved to Dallas, and later went to Boston, at which place he was placed under arrest by the marshal. The complaint was issued at the instigation of the Fresno County Humane Society. Knight, however, is not a resident of this city, and the complaint, sworn to by the complaint, Knight was to be taken to Fresno by the name of "Shanty" Knight.

AMBUEN, Calif., Oct. 26.—Bennett Davis, a twelve-year-old boy of this city, received a fatal wound in the head about 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon while hunting near here, and died from the effects of the wound at the hospital at 1 o'clock this morning, without having regained consciousness.

Young Davis and his seven-year-old brother started on a hunting trip about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. After over an hour later the smaller boy returned with the information that Bennett had been shot, but he could tell no coherent story because of his fright.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 26.—"I am glad of the opportunity to have my name changed," said Miss Katherine Oberdientchenfeldt, 23 years old, today as she was handed the papers which make her petition to change this burdensome appellation. She will be married to Louis Kuhn, a farmer.

A NUMB FEELING THAT SPREAD

A Kansas Woman Tells How an Attack of Partial Paralysis Started.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cured This Case as They Have Many Others After Ordinary Treatment Failed.

Mrs. J. D. Lewis, whose address is R. F. D. No. 2, Circleville, Kansas, describes an experience of morbidly unusual interest to every nervous sufferer. Her complete cure by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People of a severe nervous disorder should convince every reader of the power of this medicine. She says:

"Three years ago I was stricken with paralysis in the right side of my face, and my mouth was drawn to one side so much that I could not talk plainly. The disease started in gradually with a numb feeling in the right side of my face, and my mouth was drawn to one side so much that I could not talk plainly. I was extremely nervous and could not get a good night's sleep, my appetite left me, I had gas on the stomach, palpitation of the heart and sinking spells which came without warning, making me suddenly gasp for breath and faint. A physician said my trouble was paralysis but his treatment did not help me. He gave me medicine and also electric treatments.

"An advertisement in the paper led me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I was much surprised at how they helped me. I could see improvement while I was taking the first box. With the second box the numbness disappeared and I continued their use until I was cured. I could eat again, my flesh and strength came back, I could sleep and felt as well as ever.

"I believe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the cause of my present good health and I tell everybody what they have done for me."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are a general tonic and are useful in all diseases arising from poor blood or weakened nerves, such as anemia, neuritis, rheumatism, nervous headache, and pale and yellow complexion.

NEGROES GET JAIL TERM FOR VAGRANCY

Two black mechanics appeared before Police Judge Briggs yesterday morning and pleaded guilty to charges of vagrancy. Joe Brown was sentenced to twenty days and John Turner was given the same term. Both gentlemen of color are being confined in the same cell and will be the earliest candidates for the next county jail. Brown intended the magistrate that he had been to fight the case for some time in the San Bernardino mountains last summer, but that he had not returned since. Turner said that he had been in the mountains, but that he had not returned since. Turner said that he had been in the mountains, but that he had not returned since.

Unless a reply is received in the next day or so, the body will be buried here.

CLOVIS WOMEN FIRST TO VOTE IN COUNTY

This Is Made Possible By Blunder in Publishing Election Call.

The seventh woman in the county registered yesterday at the courthouse as a voter. She is Mrs. Dora B. Carr, aged 33, a native of Texas, and a resident of Clovis. She is a Democrat. She made no secret of her purpose for registering, declaring that it was to qualify as a voter at the election for the incorporation of the town.

That the women of Clovis city will be the first in Fresno county to exercise the voting privilege results from the fact that the election cannot be held on the 11th of next month, the date originally set by the supervisors. Were it held on that day as proposed, they could not vote, because the register for that election would have been closed for 30 days before. But now it appears that a blunder was made in the preliminary publications in connection with the November election, and the election cannot be held until some day early in January. Meanwhile all Clovis women who are desirous of voting are registering now because there will be no registering for the Clovis town election for 30 days previous to whatever day in January is set for the election.

The call for the election had been published in a daily paper would have had to run 2 weeks to make it legal, but Clovis has no daily paper so that the publication should have been in the weekly paper covering three weeks, whereas it was only published twice in two weeks. The supervisors do not meet again until the 6th of November, the earliest date on which a day of election can be set, followed by publication covering three weeks so that the legal time will be up about the 23rd or 24th of next month.

MORE EXECUTIONS IN ABBOTT CASE

Bookkeeper French Limits and Groups Them According to Localities.

Bookkeeper French of the old raisin growers association placed in the hands of the sheriff, yesterday a third batch of executions to realize collection on judgments in the old A. L. Abbott case. The executions are against the following named for the sums indicated:

J. O. Robo ..... $301.76
T. J. Robo ..... $454.24
Joe Morris ..... $298.15
Joe Morris ..... $170.15
Ira Shifflet ..... $110.14
Jakob Le Grant ..... $185.82
A. W. Packard ..... $104.91

Le Grant has died since the judgment was given in the Abbott case, and his part of the judgment is being paid by his estate. The judgment is being paid by his estate.

Bookkeeper French is pursuing a system in the levying of these judgments. He takes out a given number only about every other day so as not to swamp the clerk's office as he would were he to come with a large number of delinquent judgments at one time. He also groups his executions as regards localities so that the sheriff's office need not travel all over the country and detail several deputies in the levy of the executions.

JEWS TO BE DRIVEN FROM YEKATERINOSLAV

YERKATSKA, Russia, Oct. 26.—By order of the governor, all Jews in the town of Yekaterinoslav are subject to expulsion with the following exceptions: 1. Those living in the province since May 16, 1882; 2. Artisans; 3. Those resident since August 14, 1896; 4. An order of expulsion against them has already been sent aside by the governor's chamber; 5. Those who have changed to a rural residence between May 18, 1882, and January 11, 1888.

Many of these subject to expulsion are in financial straits, as the sudden expulsion order prevents a liquidation of their affairs, and to avoid financial ruin some are adopting the Russian faith.

SEEK TO DOUBLE RATE ON METAL BATH TUBS

State Railroad Commission Hearing Application of Railroads.

The state railroad commission is hearing arguments against certain re-classifications asked by the railroads in their western classification list which is to go into effect on November 1st. The re-classifications proposed are principally on plumbing materials. One of these doubles the rate on metal bath tubs from $1.25 to $2.50. The other increases asked by the railroads are not so big in proportion. Protest against the re-classification was made by several trade associations, among them being the Fresno Trade Association. E. M. Hill, manager of the association, did not go to San Francisco to attend the hearing and consequently has received no word regarding it. A decision of the commission is expected within a day or two.

INHERITANCE TAX IN LOUCKS' ESTATE

Al. M. Dealing as inheritance tax appraiser finds that the estate of Thelma C. Loucks valued at $14,591.85, less $303.65 for charges and fees, paid to the maternal grandparents, E. E. and Rosa Swift, in shares of $528.15 each with $1000 exempt. The inheritance tax which is called upon to pay therefore is $1025 with $6.68 interest. Baby Thelma Loucks was the infant daughter of Orville L. Loucks, who with wife and child received fatal injuries to a collision between automobile and train at the railroad crossing near the bridge at Reedley. Relatives of Loucks contested with the grandparents the question of who survived longest, the father or the infant, the death of the mother having been instantaneous. Judge Austin decided in behalf of the maternal grandparents and this decision was sustained on appeal.

RAISINS TO BE GIVEN FOR SHRINERS' STORE

Raisin Day Committee Agrees to Donate If Flour Is Secured.

The Raisin Day Committee met yesterday at the chamber of commerce and agreed to provide enough raisins for 5,000 loaves of raisin bread for the Shriners' country store in Los Angeles next month, provided that some milling company or companies will donate flour for the bread. The matter was brought before the committee by the Shriners in a communication. It is the intention of the Shriners to distribute the bread free to those who will visit the store. Five thousand loaves of bread are also to be distributed at the Omaha Land Show. The Raisin Day Committee has accepted samples of the bread sent and has already forwarded an order for the baking of the bread. Four ounces of flour will be baked for distribution and the same size loaves will be baked for the Shriners' occasion in Los Angeles if the flour is secured.

Gas Engine and Separator Awards Protected; Meeting Called.

The net profit of the 1911 fair of the Fresno County Agricultural Association was $1,636.83, according to a statement made yesterday by C. G. Eberhart, secretary of the association.

The directors of the association and other parties interested, will meet at the office on J street next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock to consider a number of protests that have been made against awards given on various exhibits.

The protests are over the awards on gasoline engines and on cream separators.

The Commercial Engine Company of Los Angeles and the Samson Iron Works are protesting against the gasoline engine awards while the DeLavel Dairy Supply company of San Francisco is protesting against the cream separator awards.

The Morton Gas Engine Company and the Fresno Agricultural Works were given the awards in the gas engine displays while the Fresno Creamery was awarded first prize for the best cream separator.

The DeLavel Dairy Supply company charges that the judge of the cream separators is an agent for a competing separator, but had the DeLavel separator, but had the agency taken from him. On these grounds they charge bias. They also claim that the separator that did get first prize, broke down during the test and had to be repaired. The DeLavel people also claim that the Fresno Creamery company violated two of the rules of the association. In the first place it is charged that this company brought in some exhibits after the closing time specified by the association, and in the second place it is charged that the Fresno Creamery company was not the bona fide owner of some of the exhibits, as was required by the rules.

An attempt was made last Saturday to have a hearing but the directors of the association did not get a quorum and the matter was postponed until next Saturday. These are the only protests that have been made as a result of the judging at the fair, although it was stated by one of the directors, immediately after the fair closed that there

Read Our Challenge

We do not like to see our friends quarreling among themselves as to which Cream Separator should have been awarded the prize at the County Fair, so, in order to settle this entire controversy, and put a stop to this wrangling, we will give them an opportunity to compete with the One Best Cream Separator—

The Real Leader of Them All The United States Interlocking Bowl Separator

We defeated all the Separators at the County Fair a year ago so badly, and proved so conclusively the great superiority of the United States Separator at that time, that we did not consider it necessary to make an exhibit at all this year. But, in order to give these Separator dealers something worth wrangling over, we hereby challenge all of the local Separator agents to a public Separator contest at which the machine shall be judged on the following points:

1. Skimming.
2. Construction.
3. Sanitation.
4. Installation and power.

Now, let us see how anxious these dealers are to prove which really is the best separator.

When the United States Cream Separator was awarded the Grand Prize at the Alaska-Yukon Exposition at Seattle the competing Separator Companies were very much disturbed and sorely envious. Following their usual tactics, they entered a protest, claiming that they were entitled to as high award as the United States Separator.

Their protests were very carefully considered and examined by the Superior Jury, with the result that this Superior Jury agreed with the first Jury, allowing the United States Separator the One Grand Prize—all others had to be satisfied with second and third prizes.

There Is Positively But One Best Separator—The United States

IT ALWAYS WINS!!!

It is always a source of pleasure to owners of United States Separators to feel that they use the same make of Separator that wins ALL of the important awards in the dairy world.

U. S. Separators hold world's skimming record—awarded Grand Prize Seattle Exposition—awarded Grand Prize Buffalo Exposition.

JUDGE OF COUNTY FAIR CALLED ON CARPET

Charge That Blue Ribbons Were Distributed Indiscriminately.

Because he alleges that he tried to please everybody G. T. Willis, one of the judges at the recent county fair, is to be placed on the carpet before the directors of the fair association on Saturday next to answer charges that have been lodged against him to the effect that he did not award blue ribbons in accordance to his best judgment.

The charges against Mr. Willis have been filed with Secretary Eberhart by the cream separator and gas engine men who had exhibits at the county fair.

"These exhibitors allege," stated Mr. Eberhart this morning, "that Mr. Willis distributed the prize ribbons indiscriminately. If he did we desire to know it. For that reason the directors of the association have been asked to meet on Saturday."

Mr. Eberhart further states that when Mr. Willis was asked for an explanation after the fair as to his acts he declared that he had merely tried to please everybody and had evidently failed to do that.

Mr. Willis is considered an expert on machinery, having held a position with a local firm dealing in implements of all kinds for a period of about twenty years. For that reason he was chosen as a judge of the machinery department of the recent county fair.

"ALIAS JIMMY VALENTINE" IS HUMAN INTEREST STUDY FILLED WITH DRAMATIC SCENES

H. B. Warner, who appears in "Alias Jimmy Valentine" at the Barton next Monday Evening.

"Alias Jimmy Valentine," the detective-thriller play which will be seen at the Barton Opera House next Monday evening, has been played in every portion of the globe. At Wallack's Theatre, New York, it played two years. In London Charles Frohman has successfully presented the play where it duplicated its New York success. In Paris and Berlin, "Alias Jimmy Valentine" also scored heavily. From far off Australia also comes the news that "Alias Jimmy Valentine" has made the theatergoers of that country sit up and take notice. H. B. Warner, the creator of the play's fascinating hero, will be seen in the title role during the play's engagement here. The original New York company which played two years at Wallack's, will support Mr. Warner. The seat sale for this notable dramatic event is now open.

While Signor Augusto Antola, the distinguished baritone of the Lambardi Company will be assigned the serious role of Sharpshooter, in the coming production of "Mrs. Butterfly" at the Barton Opera House, on Tuesday evening, October 31st, he will also be heard in the double bill, "Cavalleria Rustica" and "Pagliacci" on the second night. It is in the role of "Toto," in the last-named opera, that Antola is said to be absolutely incomparable. His singing of the famous prelude to the first act of the opera, which is one of the sweetest memories of his appearance with the Lambardi forces in past seasons.

Miss Adalgisa Glana, the beautiful soprano, will appear as a member of the "Pagliacci" cast. The large and complete orchestra, with its perfect instrumentation, is said to bring out all the tonal delicacies written into the charming music of both these short operas. Sig. Luigi Cecchetti, the eminent Italian maestro, will occupy the chief orchestral chair in the presentation of the ever-popular double bill of Wednesday night, November 1st. Chevalier Fulgenzio Chierotti, the "scores" director, will conduct the performance of Puccini's wonderful opera, "Mme. Butterfly," on the previous evening.

Sig. Chierotti is the favorite director of D'Amico, the composer of "Cavalleria," and was recently knighted by the King of Italy for his wonderful work in Italy where he has been directing the Mascagni operas. That the great dramatic authors of the world will hereafter write plays to be interpreted by the feet of Russian ballet dancers, is the remarkable assertion of Morris Gest, managing director of Gertrude Hoffman's Imperial Ballet, coming to the Barton Opera House for a special engagement of one night only, Monday, November 6th.

Verifying and strengthening this assertion, Mr. Gest relates an incident which occurred in Paris last year. Mme. Maria Badini Bolchini, of Gertrude Hoffman's organization, was dancing at the Chatelet Theatre. Entranced by the emotion which the dancer was able to portray on the tips of her toes, Gabriel D'Annunzio, the celebrated Italian author, asked to be presented to her. Said he: "My dear Madam Bolchini, I would be the happiest of men if I could write for you to express with your feet that which I have written for Duse to express with her voice."

The incident was largely circulated, and interested Henry Arthur Jones, Arthur Wing Pinero and Henri Bernstein, who are said to be considering the writing of "dance dramas" to be interpreted by the ballerinas, premier dancers, and mimics of the Czard's domain.

When you have a bad cold you want the best medicine obtainable so as to cure it with as little delay as possible. Here is a druggist's opinion: "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for fifteen years," says Enos Lollar of Saratoga Ind., "and consider it the best on the market." For sale by all dealers.

MILDER REGULATIONS FOR ARMY OFFENDERS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Under a new policy inaugurated during the last year in army regulations and guard duty manual, soldiers who commit offenses which merit their incarceration in a guard house hereafter will be permitted to discharge their duties as prisoners without the stigma of an armed guard. Another important change affecting army prisoners, according to Brig. General E. H. Crowder, Judge Advocate General of the army, is the fact that the punishment system which allows the offender to be released after serving one-half a sentence of ten days or more.

PARLIER COUPLE GIVEN RECEPTION

Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors Honor Mr. and Mrs. Wells.

PARLIER, Oct. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wells were given a wedding reception Tuesday night at Woodman Hall by the Parlier Camps of M. W. A. and Royal Neighbors. Following a splendid banquet, a very pleasant evening was spent in music and social converse. Mr. and Mrs. Wells received a fine carving set from the two camps.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. W. A. church will give a Halloween social at Woodman's hall on Friday evening. The chicken will be served in the upstairs hall, while the lower hall will be turned over to the young people for an old fashioned Halloween high jump. Every one is invited. Twenty-five cents will be charged for the supper, for the benefit of the parsonage fund.

Parlier presents a busy scene just now, as all growers who have sold for October delivery are rushing in their raisins, almost blocking the Griffin & Scheller packing house. This firm is using the old Doty house to store goods and many teams are lined up all day at the two houses.

The Parlier winery is running full blast on second crop muscats and is just now making brandy for the winter.

Our school directors are making some important improvements at the Parlier grammar school, installing an electric pumping plant, with sanitary drinking fountains and other improvements.

WOMEN PAY TOO MUCH ATTENTION TO SOCIETY

Rev. Charles Beal Scores Men and Women for Not Heeding Bible.

The "Conversion of a Treasurer" was the subject of the sermon of Rev. Charles Beal last night at the North Side Christian church. Rev. Beal said in part:

"My text tonight is Acts 5:28-40. Here we find a description of how God sues people to prominence. An example is frequently better than a set of rules. Jesus could have made a perfect set of rules on what a person must do to be saved. Instead of this, however, we find the Book of Acts is filled with a series of exceptions for people in all departments of life. We learn by seeing how other did."

"There are four things about this official I want to notice. Who the convert was; who the preacher was; how God brought the man together, and the result. The convert, we learn from reading the text, was either a Jew or a Jewish proselyte, most likely the latter, and held a position of great authority, being the royal treasurer of Queen Candace of Ethiopia. Here is a man that could hold a political office and still find time to attend worship in God's house; even when he had to travel a good many hundred miles in a chariot. Many high officials since that time have been devout worshippers of God, although there is a saying among many people that a man can not be in politics and still be a Christian. Among other names that come to mind are such men as Gladstone, Garfield, McKinley, Roosevelt, Bryan and Champ Clark. These leaders had come a long distance to worship in the temple at Jerusalem which was proof of his sincerity. He was ready to listen while the preacher explained the scripture. Today there are many people who want to do all the talking themselves and air some little theory. They are afraid to take the plain teaching of the Bible for it condemns their way of living and it is easier to take away the Bible than it is to change their lives. But taking away God's law and there is a time coming when the eternal Judge will do the talking."

"The preacher was a deacon in the church at Jerusalem by the name Philip, who after the Pentecost church was organized by persecution, turned evangelist and began a meeting in the city of Samaria. The meeting was marvellously successful and many people were obedient to the terms of the Gospel. When the deacon of this splendid work came to a messenger to the evangelist telling him to leave this promising field and go toward the south into the road that ran from Jerusalem to Gaza. Although the place to which he was told to go was in a hostile land, Philip did not ask any reason for the command of God but obeyed promptly. A splendid example of how every person ought to obey the Lord. He arrived in the road in time to meet a chariot in which sat the Treasurer of the kingdom. ## THREE NEW YORK PITCHERS UNABLE TO STOP HITTING OF PHILADELPHIA

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 26.—Philadelphia Athletics are championing of the novel for the second successive year.

In an exhibition of batting seldom seen in a premier baseball series, the American League team defeated New York today in the sixth game of the series by the overwhelming score of 12 to 2, thus giving them the four consecutive victories and six runs to carry off baseball's greatest honor.

It was more than a mere defeat for the Giants. It was a rout.

With the victory goes sixty per cent of $125,000, or $75,000, of which each Athletic player will receive $2,500.

The losers will receive the remainder, $51,000, or $13,750 for each New York player.

ATHLETICS CRUSH GIANTS.

Coming from behind after New York players were ahead four or five runs, the defeat of the Giants was over-looked and much the Athletics so far outdistanced the Giants in the hitting department that the crowd began to cheer in derision every time an Athletic player was thrown out by a New York man.

After the hitting was over, but it was nothing compared to the seventh when ten Athletics stepped to the plate to take a crack at the pitching.

MEINIS PLAYS FIRST.

A bit of sentiment on the part of Captain Harry Davis was shown when he sent the injured Meinis into the game. The pitcher was the last put out and officially injured in the series. Chief Myers also retired near the end of the game in favor of Wilson, probably for the same reason. Before the game began it looked

(By RICHARD W. LARDNER, in Baseball Magazine)

When the history of the National Club has advanced to the decade from the present time, and when the great sport-loving public has reached a position where it can view a man who has stood high in the athletic world as a man who has stood at a great distance, then the name of Frank Chance, the man who has led the greatest fighting machine in the baseball world to an unprecedented success, will stand out as head and shoulders above all his contemporaries. Judging by the record of his marvelous career and the wonderful achievements he has attained in his chosen profession, Chance has faithfully earned the title which his contemporaries awarded him—"The Fearless Leader."

What is a ball bag? Why, a ball bag is a small hand grip in which the manager of a ball club carries the balls new and old, which are to be used by his pitchers in the military practice, by his pitchers in their warming-up before a game, and by his reliever hurlers in their preparation to supplant other hurlers who are short of their normal strength. It is a bag showing signs that said control or effectiveness won't stay with them much longer.

But is there no other use for a ball bag? Oh, yes, indeed, sir. A ball bag is also a very handy device which can be kicked with terrific force when one feels in the humor for kicking, and often does when one is sitting on the bench and things are going wrong out there on the field of play.

It is the duty of the leader of the Chicago Cubs, couldn't get along without it. You know this fearless leader has been obliged to sit on the bench most of this season. There are pains in his back, this he has told us. One part of his body too numerous to mention, and make it just about impossible for him to take an active part in a playing part, in the game at which he is an expert. But Mr. Chance is not a man to let the pains in his back be ridiculous to suppose he could do his managing from his orange grove in California. He has been unable to go from first base through most of the present campaign. This he has done, sitting on the bench at most every afternoon and issued orders, "bawlings out," advice, prayers and protests from there.

That's where the ball bag comes in handy. When the Cubs sit out, it is because that Leonard Cole is pitching. Leonard gets two strikes on Jacob Daubert of Brooklyn. Then Leonard mislays his control and hands four balls to the same Jacob. It is a close game, and the Cubs are far away from the bench. He isn't within kicking distance. The ball bag, open at the top and full of balls, is Bang! There it goes, and the balls which come flying out of the bag and strike it, the vicinity of the bench, some of them traveling half way to the foul line from the impetus given them by the force of the kick. The foul balls, the useless mind is relieved. The pitcher groves and insisted on the pitcher's foot, kicking something, and the ball bag was right handy.

It is the duty of Duroy Shewan, Lew Riddle, Tom McWhorter or any other willing gentleman who happens to be in on a share of the bench room to gather up the scattered balls with their hands and return them to the bag and put them within kicking distance again, for Mr. Cole is likely to walk Mr. Wheat, too. Perhaps Lew Riddle ought to be left out of the list of ball bag authors, for when he isn't doing the kicking he is sitting on the bench and up to take somebody else's place and has no time to sit on the bench and arise at intervals to refill the bag.

Chance has been advised by physicians to get away from baseball for a while, but the first time a pennant is in sight all the time and pennants can't be won by deserting. He hasn't been of much use to his team as a first baseman or hitter, but his presence on the bench makes a lot of difference. Cubs don't like his kicking or grooving careless when the big bear is watching their every movement. They must be on the jump, or else they are audience to a series of lectures delivered in much confidence and containing words easily intelligible and not complimentary to themselves. These lectures are delivered while he is Chicago's turn at bat. When the pitcher is on the mound, the addresses are dropped, and the ball bag helps in the preparation.

The conversation between Chance and a member of his team, when something has happened, starts as a dialogue. "What's happened?" "What were you doing on that ball of Burger's, Heine?"

This address to Zimmerman.

"I thought Artie would get it."

That's Zimmerman, and that's where the dialogue of it ends, and the monologue starts.

"If that's the way you think, you'll be doing your thinking from the bench pretty soon and you won't be getting any more of those balls. Your fellows are getting bailed up like that all the time. What's the matter with you anyway? If they'd scored on that, I'd have put a plaster on you that you'd remembered for a while. Now you've got to get after Cole. You better keep after them. Artie and Schulte will tell you when they don't belong to you."

"A plaster? Is a fine. A plaster of Paris? I remembered him anxious to about $50. It comes out of the salary on the subsequent pay day, and usually is returned to him at the end of the season."

Chance has been criticized by ball players and their friends and alleged (Continued in Page Eleven.)

times. Today his condition is much worse and his physician called in two days ago to say, "He is not getting any better. The only chance of reducing the pain and easing his operation will be necessary. Tomorrow, however, will be in bed for a week. He will be able to pitch again next season, the doctor says."

When news in bed, Combs said that in the sixth inning his elbow caught in the hold in the pitcher's box and when he delivered the ball he felt a terrific jar. The pain was intense, concentrated on the right side, but he kept on pitching. In the ninth inning he had to quit. Rupture of the intertibia is what killed Mr. Mike Powers, catcher for the Athletics, several years ago.

Nothing but six hits off his offerings, while the Portland man had two strike-outs. To add to his glory Harvey's name shinned out a three base drive in the lucky seventh when the score was 1-0. The ball soared on the hit. Ables, the Oakland twirler, was promptly withdrawn from the firing line, Christian taking his place, but the locals could not overtake Portland's lead.

The series was arranged by the players of the two teams for their own benefit, the winners taking the long end of the gate receipts. Score:

Oakland .....	6	6

"Red" Lybch, former outfielder for the Visalia Pirates, led the Michigan league in hitting during the season. He was transferred to the New York Americans and was termed out as a hitting average for the season was .357.

RAISIN MARKET STRONG IN EAST ACCORDING TO ALL ADVICES

Packers Say Rush of Growers Results in Declining Market Here.

Large Proportion of 4 1-2c Contracts Were Not Fulfilled.

Notwithstanding the fact that much pressure is being used to lower the price of raisins to the growers, latest advices from New York are to the effect that the market is firm.

A wire received here yesterday from James H. Butler & Co. of Chicago says: "Heavy demand developing for raisins from all sections of central West. Prices have reached a point that are attractive to the trade. Spot stocks light."

A number of local packers, attributing the decline in raisin prices to the fact that in the past two or three weeks a number of growers have been rushing in with their goods. Under these conditions they claim the market is put on a speculative basis, and on this basis they are not willing to pay more than 3 1/2 cents. Indications now are that within the next two weeks all outstanding raisins in the hands of growers will be in strong hands, and an advance in price is anticipated. As soon as the growers cease to rush in it is asserted that the packers will cease to play a speculative game.

4 1/2c CONTRACTS VOID
Many of the 4 1/2-cent contracts made early this season for delivery not later than October 25th. Many growers making such contracts were unable to get their goods in on Wednesday, the date named, and as a result a considerable tonnage has been added to the market. Some of the packers, who failed to deliver by the 25th, were ordered yesterday, it is said, offering to sell to other packers at a lower figure. The assertion is made that only those who cannot hold on longer are doing this.

A large number of the 4 1/2-cent contracts made by the packers were never fulfilled, according to statements made yesterday. Two reasons are given for this. One is the failure of the growers to get their raisins in ships to deliver by October 25th, the date specified in the contract, and the other is that many who did deliver before this date were forced to accept less for their goods because the packers declared them to be rain damaged or wet.

In some cases the growers were obliged to sell as low as 3 1/2 cents because of the alleged rain damage. The majority of the packers assert that the raisins were damaged somewhat by rain, but not to the extent of a cent or a quarter of a cent. One man estimated yesterday that layers that were really rain damaged, had been damaged to the extent of about 1/2 a cent a pound. Loose goods, he said, had been damaged about 1-8 of a cent a pound.

TOO BUSY TO BUY
Rushing is said to be very light, as the packers are rushed trying to fill their October orders that they have no time for anything else. All the houses are full of raisins and are running full blast. Even though the houses are running full, it is said that none of the packers will be able to completely fill their October contracts. As soon as the first rush is over, it is believed that the packers will be able to pay more attention to other matters and will then be ready to enter the field again. A clean-up of the 1911 raisins at an early date is the expectation, however, at the present time. Some growers are inclined to believe that there will be a rise in price by Christmas while others do not anticipate any great change until spring.

The August and September seeded shipments out of Fresno are said to have been much less than for the corresponding months last year. Although it is impossible to tell to what extent the shipments were short, the California By-Products Company reports that in these two months its total receipts of raisin seeds was from 200 to 500 tons less than for the corresponding months of 1910. The California By-Products Company purchases seeds from all the packing houses. The weight of the seeds is about 8 percent of the entire weight of the raisins, and thus it is estimated that the shipments of raisins for August and September were from 400 to 600 tons less than in August and September of 1910.

FRESNO BOY WRITES U. C. JUNIOR FARCE

A farce submitted by V. C. Gaines has been chosen by the junior class committee for presentation on Junior class day, December 1, as the annual production of the third year students of the University of California. So far the farce is well received, the committee having rejected the manuscript by the author and not having yet determined upon a substitute. Gaines is a son of Charles Gaines, a well known Fresno vineyardist. Young Gaines is a graduate of Fresno High school.

FRESNO COUNTY FOURTH IN SCHOOL ATTENDANCE IN THIS STATE

It Ranks Fifth in Number of Pupils Attending High School.

Apportionment of $84,233 Is Made at Sacramento in Aid of County.

Only three counties in the state have a larger teaching force based on elementary school attendance than Fresno and therefore consequently a larger apportionment of state funds for their support. Alameda, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Santa Clara exceed it in average daily attendance in the fifty-five counties for the high schools. Apportionment has been made by state controller Nye to the counties of $1,943,200 for the general and $231,864.80 for the high schools. For the elementary schools the state apportionment is on a basis of 3,556 teachers allowed on attendance and at the rate of $200 per teacher.

This school allowance is the first of the new plan of apportionment in transferring the money from the general state fund in place of coming from a direct tax. It is expected to apportion the remainder about that $20 an advance in price is anticipated. As soon as the growers cease to rush in it is asserted that the packers will cease to play a speculative game.

THE SIX LARGEST APPORTIONMENTS ARE THESE:

County	Teachers	Amount
Los Angeles	1,769.47	$353,894
San Francisco	1,098	219,600
Alameda	82	164,400
Fresno	378.09	75,618
San Jose	315	63,150
San Diego	273.83	54,766

The number of high schools receiving state aid in June last was 221, with a daily attendance for that year of 34,111, and a rate of $4.10 per pupil on an average daily attendance at against a $350 rate per school for one-half basis. Last year's apportionment to each high school was $596.59 and $8.15 per pupil on attendance. It is expected to be about the same this year.

Fresno county with 1174 pupils attending in eleven high schools is apportioned $9,015, Fresno city district being allowed $2642 on 521 attendance. With Fresno county fourth in the state for number of teachers and largest apportionment for the elementary schools, it is interesting to make comparison with high schools with some of the other counties immediately above or under Fresno in general classification:

Sacramento—Three schools, 756 attendance, apportionment $14,770 (city $67 and $2,252).
San Bernardino—Six, 1078, $6,542.20.
San Diego—Eight, 1117, $7,143.20 (city $73 and $3829.20).
San Joaquin—Three, 630 (497 of these in Stockton city) $3,910.
San Luis Obispo—Eight, 1000, $11,160 (San Jose $120 and $3,681).
Tulare—Seven, 742, $5,714.80 (city $159 and $1,181.60).

EDITOR LAMOREUX WILL EXPLAIN "GENTLEMAN FRIEND" TONIGHT

Labor News' Attack on Virtue of Telephone Girls to Come Up.

Labor Council Will Likely "Whitewash" Affair as "Only a Mistake."

PAINTERS ENDORSE ATTACK ON VIRTUE OF FRESNO GIRLS

Here is the statement from the Labor News in regard to Fresno telephone girls that men and fathers are being deceived by their "gentleman friend" in order to exist.

Members of the local Painters' Union last night came to the rescue of Editor Lamoreux at the Fresno Labor News and passed a resolution condemning the Carpenters' Union for attacking the attack on the virtue of the telephone girls of Fresno. The resolution was adopted for publishing the action taken by the Carpenters' Union and for denouncing the assertion of the Labor News as an outrageous lie.

According to President Correll of the Painters' Union, the resolution was passed unanimously last night and the members ordered a copy spread on the minutes of the meeting and another sent to Secretary Humphreys of the Carpenters' Union. Here is the resolution in full:

"Whereas, the editor of the Fresno Labor News has called public attention to a subject which has long been discussed in labor circles, as well as in the labor press and socialist papers, namely, the paying of insufficient wages by corporations and department stores to a large percentage of their female employees, and

"Whereas, the editor of the Fresno Republican has attacked the Labor News by misrepresenting the language and object of his article, and

"Whereas, the Carpenters' Union, in ordering the Labor News removed from its hall, forgetting said paper is the property of the Labor Council, has thereby taken a stand in favor of the Telephone Company and the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, which is detrimental to the interests of the laboring class;

"Therefore, be it resolved, that the Painters' Union, 294, condemn the attitude of the Fresno Republican and the Carpenters' Union on this subject.

"And be it further resolved, that a copy of this resolution be spread on the minutes of this meeting, and also sent to the Carpenters' Union.

In the third paragraph of the resolution the painters denounce the Carpenters' Union for its attitude toward the Telephone Company, which has many times been denounced by the labor press as one of the so-called Big Business interests.

The controversy, which has reached the white heat point, will be thrashed out tonight at the weekly meeting of the Fresno Labor Council. Editor Lamoreux has been condemned by one union, the Carpenters, while four have come to his rescue. There are the Electrical Workers, Painters, Sheet Metal Workers and Hod Carriers. The last three mentioned met last night and voted to lend their support to Editor Lamoreux.

In the Labor Council chambers tonight, the Carpenters' Union will be represented by nine delegates, the largest representation from one union in the city. It is believed in union circles that the Carpenters' Union will endorse the stand taken by the Carpenters, and unless these men receive support from other unions the delegates favoring Editor Lamoreux will probably vote to "whitewash" him tonight.

The accused editor last night issued a statement in which he called attention to a section of the by-laws of the Labor Council, which reads as follows: "The committee of every child in the city shall decide on the policy to be pursued by the editor of the Labor News, and their decision shall be final and shall not be subject to controversy by any union affiliated with the Council."

Lamoreux says he has a contract with the Labor Council to edit and manage the official paper. The paper declared he is only the agent of the board of control from the Labor Council. Tom Anton of the Carpenters' Union is the only member who has taken any stand against the editor. The others have openly defended him.

VACCINATION WILL NOT BE RIGIDLY ENFORCED

Board of Education to Let Unvaccinated Children Stay in School.

The board of education will not enforce the vaccination law to the extent of refusing admission to children, whose parents have taken advantage of the "conscience" clause in the state law. At a joint meeting of the board of education and the city board of health held last night, it was decided not to enforce the vaccination of all children for the present at least, as the smallpox danger seems to have passed. There is now only one case in the city and that will be out of quarantine by the first of the week. Furthermore it is in a secluded part of the city.

HARRY SHERWOOD WRECK IN FINANCES AND IN MIND

Former Fresno Business Man in Sad Plight Over Adversities.

Sued By Wife for Maintenance, He Says He Is on Verge of Penury.

Many Fresnoans will hear with regret that Harry Sherwood, formerly manager of the Sperry Flour Company here, is broken financially and almost in a mental wreck. His condition is self-admitted, and became public when his wife brought suit in San Francisco for maintenance. The Chronicle gives the following pathetic account of Sherwood's present condition:

Suffering from a combination of physical ills, and admitting an advanced state of mental dejection brought on by business reverses, Harry Sherwood, formerly vice president of the Merchants' exchange, former general manager of the Sperry Flour Company and wealthy stock broker, was made defendant in a suit for maintenance, the papers for which arrived here yesterday, wherein the wife, Mrs. Willie Sherwood, is the plaintiff.

The expression of a determination to file the action disclosed one of the most pitiful instances of human downfall that the annals of this city ever recorded—the more pitiful that it is generally admitted to have overtaken the subject without fault of his. From the highest position in the commercial and business world, Sherwood has reached a stage where, according to his own reluctant admission, it is necessary for him to seek his own means in the form of a cheap lodging house in order that he may employ his meager resources to make as brave an appearance as possible before his former business associates. Added to these untoward circumstances are ill health, mental distress and domestic disappointments—the untiring end of over thirty-five years of happily wedded life.

EVERYTHING WENT AGAINST HIM
According to Sherwood, he and his wife became estranged about two years ago, at which time he turned over to her all his remaining property, consisting of a homestead in El Dorado county, worth about $2000. He further avers that he made provision to contribute to Mrs. Sherwood's support from time to time, as he was able to do so.

Then the maladies that had crept upon him for some years past lessened his capacity for work, projects that he had conceived, and he was unable to carry out the support of his wife, who was reduced to financial straits and failed to contribute to his wife's support.

Sherwood brought an action, for divorce through his attorney, W. W. Davidson, in which Mrs. Sherwood asked for a change of venue, he asked that the suit be dismissed, for he had not the means to contest the application. Then Mrs. Sherwood filed an action for maintenance in El Dorado county, which was more costly and for future filing. It is also sought to tie up property to the value of $50,000, but Attorney Davidson says this property was transferred for consideration and not to evade responsibility, long before the separation of the couple.

The former associate of Sherwood says he was known as a man of the highest business integrity, who discharged every just and some unjust obligations. He was obviously a man of high character, capable of a willing discussion of his misfortunes yesterday was as sad a record as human misery could give rise to. It was the story of a proud man brought almost to desperation. It was the story of a man proud of his reputation for business integrity, reduced nearly to penury. It was the story of a man proud of having contributed to thirty-five years of wedded happiness, during which seven children were reared and married, dragged into the humiliating financial of the divorce courts. It was the story of a man, proud of a vigorous body and mind, reduced to mental and physical distress.

TOO ILL TO CONTEST
"I have given them everything I had," Harry Sherwood, "I admit my responsibility, and I shall contribute to my wife's support as long as I can. Even now I am living in cheap lodging houses cooking my own meals, in order that I may keep up a show of appearance before men with whom I am trying to do business. If my plans are successful, I shall be able to help my wife."

"I am too poor and too ill to contest a divorce action, if I had the desire, which I have not, I would rather die than go to court and defend the suit against the mother of my seven children."

"I ought to have the courage to go away and start over again, even at an age, but I am too broken in health and spirit to do so."

In this vein Harry Sherwood, his lips trembling and his eyes dim, spoke of the future and of the past with absolute abandon of hope.

Mrs. Willie Sherwood, the plaintiff, was a former society woman and a patron of the arts. Recently she has been living on the homestead near Georgetown, in El Dorado county, and over to her by her husband.

The cause of the estrangement Sherwood refused to discuss yesterday, but said that it was general incompatibility.

announcing that his grandfather's grandfather's grandfather's father was an Irishman, and for that reason he claimed descent of such a noble family. The speaker's remarks were full of wit and many times the audience burst into laughter when Dr. Conley told amusing stories of the Irishman and his old day pipe.

Dr. Conley told of how many different times he had been asked if he was not an Irishman until he began to believe that the map of Ireland must be stamped upon his face. He told of an incident in Liverpool where a policeman asked him if he were not from Ireland.

The greater part of the evening was devoted to the reading of poems from the pens of Irish authors. Around many of the poems written by Thomas Moore, and the poem that T. D. Sullivan wrote about the famous Irish potato.

Dr. Conley closed his address with a few remarks about the reason why Ireland was fast losing her popularity. At the close of the services Miss Edith Horne recited "In the Land of Beautiful Dreams."
